The Southwest Sirsi Group donated breakfast for the 2015 SCUUG business meeting.

The first order of business was the election of officers. With nominations from the floor, attended, nominated and voted Jennifer Barrera, from Tarleton State University, as President-Elect. Tracy Holtman, Tarleton State University, agreed to remain as treasurer. Vickie Shumate, Lubbock Public Library, volunteered for secretary. With no objections, the nominees were elected by acclamation through a unanimous vote.

The next order of business was to discuss the location of the 2016 meeting. It was noted by Jennifer Barrera that Tarleton State University in Stephenville, Texas would host. It was suggested that Hardin-Simmons University in Houston might like to host. Jennifer Barrera will contact Hardin-Simmons University.

The final order of business was forming an ad hock committee to look at the Bylaws. The Bylaws Committee is charged with making revisions to the Bylaws. The Bylaws Committee is Treasurer Tracy Holtman, President Jennifer Barrera, and Janet Young.

During conversation, suggestions and/or concerns included SCUUG becoming more unified, how to get more members to sign up for the mailing list, ideas for future conferences, and the need for presenters for the next conference.

Door prizes were distributed to selected individuals whose names were drawn.

The meeting adjourned at 9:50 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Vickie Shumate
Secretary 2015-2018
